Striking Telephone Operators in Conference With General Superintendent Reach Adjustment of Difficulties and Resume Posts.

Maysville is being cared for so far as telephone service is concerned this morning. The striking telephone operators are back on the job and seem very much satisfied with gaining their little strike. Two of the girls who walked-out Thursday morning went back to work during the day but the other nine held together.

An effort to get the striking operators to meet with the General Superintendent early yesterday afternoon failed as the girls said they would stay together on the proposition and that they would have a private meeting to fix up their requests before meeting Mr. Minor Corman, of Louisville, brother of the local manager, who is in charge of the entire system in the state of Kentucky.

The girls were not in conference with the General Superintendent but a short time when a complete adjustment of the troubles had been reached. The girls announce that they have gained their point. They have been given an increase in salary, pay for Sunday work and an arrangement whereby they will have two weeks vacation each year, one week with pay and the other week without pay. They are to receive double pay if they desire to work during their vacation period.

The sympathy of the general public seemed to be with the striking girls and every one seems pleased to know that they have gained their point and that in the future they will receive a reasonable salary and have much better working conditions.

MRS. BESSIE KELLEY DIES AFTER LINGERING ILLNESS

Well Known Woman of the Orangeburg Neighborhood Died Thursday Afternoon—Funeral Saturday.

Mrs. Bessie Kelley, aged 38 years, died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Q. R. Shipley, on the Stone Lick pike in the Orangeburg neighborhood, about 3:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon after an illness of about seven weeks.

Mrs. Kelley was a beautiful character loved and respected by all who had the pleasure of knowing her. She was the widow of the late William Kelley and the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Q. R. Shipley. She was a member of the Stone Lick Baptist church from early childhood and had lived a most exemplary Christian life.

Besides her parents, she is survived by five sisters, Mrs. Sud. Bramel, of Mt. Gilead, Mrs. Walter Thomas, of this city, and Misses Lena, Susie and Lucy Shipley, who made their home with their parents, as well as two brothers, Mr. George Shipley, of this city, and Mr. Neville Shipley, of Petersburg, Ill.

The funeral will be from the home Saturday morning at 10 o'clock with service by Rev. J. A. Davis, of the Maysville Baptist church, and burial will be made in the Flemingsburg cemetery.

If you desire to save and make your money go a long way, come to Merz Bros.' Saturday. We will show you how.

EVANGELIST FOR RUGGLES MAKES A GOOD IMPRESSION

Camps Are Gathering at Lewis County Campgrounds in Large Numbers—Evangelist Pleases.

(By J. H. RICHARDSON.)

Ruggles Campgrounds, July 29, 1920.

A kind providence seems to have reserved some of the finest weather of the summer for Ruggles Campmeeting—if it only continues. This has been a day when it is great to be alive and out in these big woods. The campmeeting "boss," District Superintendent Davenport arrived about noon—just a little late to start services for the morning. After taking in the situation and noting how busy folks were moving in he thought it best to have the opening service at 7:30 this evening. The camp has filled up very rapidly today. Not many unoccupied cottages remain. A very noticeable fact about the campers is the large number of children. This is a sure enough "kiddies' paradise. And no class of campers has a better time.

A number of ministers have arrived. W. H. Davenport, W. H. Morris and W. S. Peters of Maysville; John Cheap, of Cheap, Ky.; T. H. Conroy, of Wallingford; H. G. Carroll, of Buena Vista, Ohio, and the evangelist Rev. Hubert Humble, of Cincinnati, who motored through, leaving Cincy at 10 a. m. and arriving here about the middle of the afternoon.

An automobile party composed of Mrs. Wm. Weis, Mrs. Sam H. McNutt, Miss Mabel Crowell, of Maysville and Mr. Frank Bowman, of Newport, spent the day with relatives and friends in the camp.

Col. W. D. Hendrickson the chief "limb of the law" with his good wife who always takes a leading part in the women's meetings, arrived yesterday.

Mrs. Dr. W. R. Hedin, of Newport, is camping with her parents, Major and Mrs. John Walsh.

J. C. Simons spent the day in camp with his family having brought up several preachers and others in his handsome new automobile.

Mr. Clancy Smith of Cheap, Kentucky, is spending a few days in camp. Mr. Carl K. Daulton spent the day here with his family.

Mrs. Mary Gordon, of Mt. Carmel, and daughter, Mrs. Keyes, of Maysville, and Mrs. Harry Clary, of Flemingsburg, arrived this afternoon to camp for the whole period.

Miss Alberta Cooper, of Maysville, arrived this afternoon and will camp with Mrs. Moody.

Miss Bruce Wallingford of Mt. Carmel and Mrs. Arthur Keith and daughter, of Maysville, arrived today and are located in the Kentucky Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Carpenter are among the day's arrivals. They are camping nearby in the Kentucky Home. "Jake" Trumbo moved in a good-sized section of Lewis county this afternoon in his big auto truck. "Jake" himself is to be one of our campers.

The first campmeeting service for this year was held this evening at 7:30 with Evangelist Humble in charge. There was an unusually good attendance for the first service. At the hour of meeting Rev. Ashley with a good-sized chorus launched right into a rousing song service. Then Superintendent Davenport made a few introductory remarks and announcements relative to the campmeeting. Before the evangelist was present Rev. Ashley sang a very impressive solo "The Pierced Hand." Rev. Humble's sermon was a very practical, opening sermon, fraught with suggestions that must work to the success of the campmeeting. The evangelist has a splendid voice and a strong personality and physique back of it. He will have no trouble in making himself heard, and yet his voice is pleasing to hear.

A big first Sunday is being planned for. Of a surety the crowds will hear good preaching and good singing. Evangelist Humble will be the first Sunday preacher, and by that time a large well-trained chorus will be prepared to sing. Services for Sunday will be at the following hours:

Morning prayers at 6:30; Praise service at 9 a. m., morning worship at 10:30; afternoon sermon at 2:30; evening evangelistic service at 7:30.

For the first time the tabernacle floor is covered with saw dust instead of straw. We have a sure enough "saw dust trail." The price of straw is so high that the board decided that as they had such a supply of saw dust they would use it. The change is very satisfactory. We believe folks will like it better than the old way.

Master Robert Peters is the campground newsman. Leave your orders with him for either of the Maysville papers and he will accommodate you in the most obliging way.

Campers are invited to report any item of news, personal or otherwise to news headquarters in the Kentucky Home where the click of the typewriter is heard occasionally.

SHOOTING SCRAPE ON GRASSY IN LEWIS COUNTY

Trouble Among Lewis Countians Results in Shooting of One—Other Trouble Is Averted.

The Vanceburg Sun says: "Sunday the redoubtable Buck Adams shot Levi Shope in the calf of the left leg, the ball coming out on the other side. It was done with a 8-calibre pistol. He had snapped the gun three times at Shope's breast, but luckily it failed to fire or possibly there might have been a fatality to Buck's credit. The wounded man lay by the roadside until the doctor arrived, who dressed his wounds.

"The trouble is said to have started when last Wednesday Shope swore out warrants for the four Adams boys for cutting timber on him, and Sunday they met in the road with the above results.

"A Mr. Mowery and his three boys came very near being involved also, they seeing the shooting and Buck was very much of the notion to shoot them; so much so that his brothers restrained him. The Mowerys at once came to town and swore out warrants for Buck, Bruce and Sherwood Adams.

"Mr. Shope is a harmless, inoffensive and industrious citizen, and it is said the Adams' bear the reputation of being bullies when all together."

TOBACCO PLANT INFECTION IS NOT SERIOUS IN MASON

County Agent Says Infection Damaging Growing Tobacco in Central Kentucky Is Not Noticed To Any Serious Extent Here.

In regard to the tobacco plant infection which is playing havoc with the Burley crop in Central Kentucky counties, County Agent George Kirk this morning issued this statement:

"The reports of enormous damage to the tobacco crop throughout Central Kentucky have alarmed the Mason county farmers to a certain extent, but to date there have been no reports of damage in Mason county except isolated cases which are probably root rot or injury due to excessive rains, which when followed by extreme hot weather may cause sunburn, or a form of rust.

Most of the territory which is affected has had much less rain than Mason county, and the trouble may be aggravated on that account. In case there is any unexplainable trouble showing up in any fields in this county the farmer should communicate at once with the Farm Bureau, and arrangements will be made to have a pathologist visit the field in order to ascertain whether anything can be done to check the damage.

In any event it will be most wise for any farmer to observe very closely the condition of his tobacco, and in case any loss appears the crop next year should be planted on soil which has not been planted in tobacco for some years, and if possible at some distance from where this year's crop was raised. Old plant beds should not be used, and steam sterilization is the one sure way to avoid the spread of any fungus or bacterial disease which will infect the entire field if the plant bed is infected.

MARDI GRAS AND STREET DANCE IS GREAT SUCCESS

Hundreds of People Throng East Second Street Thursday Evening to Take Part in and Witness Event.

The big Mardi Gras and street dance given by the American Legion free to the public in East Second street fronting the carnival grounds last night was a decided success in that everyone had a great time. There was an enormous crowd of people at the carnival before the dance was begun and the shows and concessions did a great business.

Shortly after 10 o'clock the Italian band started up a dance tune and a few couples started to dance. Spectators crowded up so close that it was hardly possible for the dancers to have room but after quite a number of dancers got into the street and more room was given. For quite a while both young and old had a great time. Many were dressed in Mardi Gras attire and taken in all the evening was a decided success.

The big carnival will close the week Saturday night and it is expected that tonight and tomorrow night will find the carnival grounds crowded.

HARDING'S DOOR STANDS OPEN FOR ALL COMERS

Formality in Receiving Visiting Delegations To Be Barred During Presidential Campaign.

Marion, O., July 30. — Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican nominee for President, and his advisers are going ahead today with their plans for his front porch campaign, irrespective of any speaking engagements elsewhere he may decide later to fill.

The Harding front door is wide open to all comers. The Senator desires to maintain close personal contact with the rank and file of the people by receiving small groups of visitors to permit him to shake hands and talk with each and all individually or collectively. He does not wish those who come to see him to stand looking at him or listening to him from beyond the railing of his front porch. He wants them to come right up the front steps and "make themselves at home."

Senator Harding indicated today it was his purpose to receive and address groups interested in special subjects rather than to have only large state delegations come here as they flocked to Shadow Lawn during President Wilson's memorable front porch campaign when he ran for a second term.

Two more dates on which the Senator will receive delegations at his picturesque Marion home were announced. The first is August 12, when he is to express further his belief in the necessity of a protective tariff for American industry, to about 600 pottery workers of East Liverpool and Columbiana county, O. The second is September 25, when about 1,000 members of the American Defense society, a preparedness organization with headquarters at New York, of which the late Col. Theodore Roosevelt was the first honorary president, are to journey here to listen to a characteristic Harding speech on Americanism.

Red Letter Day and Double Stamps all day Saturday at Merz Bros.

MAYSVILLE SHOULD HAVE STRONG BASEBALL CLUB.

Maysville should have one of the strongest baseball clubs in the Ohio valley. We should be ashamed of the fact that Ripley, Manchester and other small towns in this section, have better teams. What should double our humility is that Maysville men, playing on salaries, are among the strongest men on these other nearby teams.

Maysville would support a good ball team. It was one of the best towns in both the Bluegrass and the Ohio State League. We have some really good material out of which a good team could be built. There is a desire for good baseball here and it appears that a strong baseball club would be a good business proposition.

When there's the material and the demand, all that's necessary is for some one to lead off. All that's necessary for Maysville to have a ball club of which we can be proud is a leader.

Who will be that leader?

Minerva, Dover and other progressive villages are lighting their streets by electricity while there are some villages which still use the moon and the lightning bugs.

Had you ever stopped to think that this Nine Foot stage business in the Ohio is going to spoil all these bathing beach parties?

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarhal, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surface. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

COMMENT ON ACCEPTANCE SPEECH OF SENATOR HARDING

Washington, July 29. — "The prelude to his inaugural address," declares the Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., in a review of Mr. Harding's speech, as follows:

"If there were any doubts lurking in the minds of independent political thinkers, if there were any disgruntled partisans of unsuccessful candidates for the presidential nomination, if the slightest trace of factionalism still persisted, all doubts, all disgruntlements, all factional feeling vanished with the reading of the truly marvelous exposition of Americanism which breathes in every line of Warren G. Harding's speech accepting the Republican nomination for the Presidency. Henceforth, the struggle to restore constitutional government to our people, to save us from the toils of European and Asiatic intrigue, to deliver the nation from the rule of organized minorities, will be unitedly waged without respite until the forces of one-man government, internationalism and class-pandering are dissipated and the triumph of the Harding-Coolidge type of nationalism brings the struggle to a close.

"The question which every reader of that splendid document must ask him self is, Am I for party first, or for America first? The speech is a benison to that man who would break away from the bondage instituted by Wilson, and which would be perpetuated by Cox, and who longs for the restoration of those American principles which transcend mere party differences. Nothing which Mr. Cox may say can add to or subtract from the intense patriotism, the breadth of vision exhibited by Mr. Harding. No rhetorical design which that craftsman of fine phrases, Mr. Wilson, may weave upon his typewriter can curb the appeal which Harding's words make to the American heart. After all that has been said and done, the vast majority of us are Americans' first. Those staunch disciples of Thomas Jefferson who have hesitatingly followed Woodrow Wilson in his political meanderings of the past few years, and who have recently been assured by Mr. Cox that he is but the shadow of his leader, may find in Harding's nationalism a signpost for a parting of the ways; a refusal further to jeopardize American institutions by Wilsonian bell-wethering into a fool's paradise.

"Harding's speech gives to the Republicans the assurance that they have done far more than to clinch a party victory by nominating such an exemplar of American thought. It convinces them that they have named the man who will save the nation from embroilment without and disruption within, for there is nothing in Harding's career as a statesman which has ever given the lie to the sentiments he has uttered. As he promises, so will he perform, and the promises to be read in his acceptance speech are the performances which will meet with the approval of the people.

"In the call of the conscience of America is peace, peace that closes the gaping wound of world war, but 'it is better to be the free and disinterested agent of international justice and advancing civilization, with the covenant on conscience, than to be shackled by a written compact which surrenders our freedom of action and gives to a military alliance the right to proclaim America's duty to the world.' 'I wish the higher wage to abide,' says he, 'on one explicit condition—that the wage-earner will give full return for the wage received.' He voices his belief in the budget system, more business-like federal departments, in the protective tariff policy—we will be calling for its saving Americanism again—for a great merchant marine, our eminence in trade, standards of immigration, unshackling child labor, stamping out lynching, ample and becoming housing, the revision of taxes, and the guarantee to the Negro of his rights of citizenship. Mexico should be helped, but she must respect our boundaries and American lives; the laws must be enforced, but they must harmonize with the Constitution.

"Breathes there an American with soul so dead he will not subscribe to sentiments like these? Harding's acceptance address is but the prelude to his inaugural address on the 4th of March, next."

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON.

AUGUST 1, 1920.

Topic: David Brings the Ark to Jerusalem. 2 Samuel 6:11-9.

REV. J. J. DICKEY.

At the battle of Gilboa, in which King Saul and his three sons were slain, the Ark of the Covenant was captured by the Philistines and carried as a trophy and placed in one of their heathen temples. The idol in the temple was broken and the ark was taken to another temple with disastrous results, so the Philistines sent the ark back to the Israelites. It was placed in the house of Abinadab, where it remained twenty years.

When David had become settled in Jerusalem, the new capital, he undertook to bring the ark to that city. Instead of priests carrying it, as the law directs, they put it on a cart drawn by oxen. The oxen stumbled and shook the ark so that it was in danger of falling, when Uzzah, who was not a priest, seized it, and fell dead. The ark in the house of Obbedom, instead of taking it on to Jerusalem. Here it remained three months. "God blessed the house of Obbedom," and David was encouraged to make another effort to bring it to Jerusalem. This he did and made a great feast, and offered burnt offerings with great rejoicing. It was placed in a tabernacle where it continued till it was removed to the magnificent temple built by Solomon. In the 25th chapter of Exodus one will find a description of the ark. It contained the stones on which God wrote the ten commandments. Aaron's rod and a pot of manna. To the Jews the Ark was the symbol of God's presence. God promised to reveal himself to the high priest at this Ark, so it was at the Ark that the priest received revelations from God. David determined to establish his kingdom under the protection of Almighty God. He did wisely. He had great prosperity. The nation grew by leaps and bounds. The land promised to Abraham was conquered—"from the River of Egypt to the Euphrates." Of all the rulers of Israel David's administration excelled.

Even Solomon with all his wisdom did not rule the people as wisely as his father David. This is easily accounted for when we remember that David relied upon God for wisdom, and honored God in all his acts. He was a great go-to-church man. Hear him, "I was glad when they said let us go up to the house of the Lord." Again, "A day in Thy courts is better than a thousand. I would rather be a door-keeper in the house of God than to dwell in the tents of wickedness." Would to God that all the rulers, in every office in our beloved country, would emulate David, in this regard. No administration can be truly wise without God is honored. "The nation that forgets God will perish." "The wicked shall be turned into hell and all the nations that forget God." These are Bible quotations. Rulers owe it to the Nation they rule as well as to God to be devout worshippers. Nothing else that they can do will be so helpful to the nation they rule. The service of God is a mark of the highest patriotism. Religion cannot be maintained without houses of worship, and sanctuaries are of no value without worshippers. David the King, not only called all the people to the place of worship but he went himself and took prominent part. This is what our rulers should do. Then would our nation stand on a firm foundation and we would have nothing to fear.

Grand Rapids, Mich., July 29.—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals in a decision today dissolved the injunction obtained in District Court at Louisville, Ky., by the Western Union Telegraph Company restraining the Louisville and Nashville Railway Company from removing from its right of way the telegraph lines of the Western Union. At the expiration of the contract the Western Union held allowing it to stretch wires along the right of way of the railroad company the railroad refused to renew it.

The dissolution of the injunction applies to the state of Kentucky and is based on a state law of Kentucky forbidding a telegraph or telephone from taking the right of way on any railroad by condemnation proceedings.

HUSBAND DROVE HER OFF WIFE SAYS ASKING DIVORCE.

In the Mason Circuit Court this afternoon Mary E. Washburn filed suit asking a divorce from the bonds of matrimony with her husband, Richard P. Washburn. The wife states that they were married on November 7, 1919, and lived together as man and wife until February, 1920. Since that time they have not lived together, the wife says, except for two weeks during April when the husband provided her with a room at her mother's home and paid her board. At the end of these two weeks, she says, the husband drove her away from the house. Prior to that time, she states, the husband had been guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment of her. She asks for a divorce from the bonds of matrimony and for all proper relief.
